Richco's Monitoring & Mentoring of New or Inexperienced Workers

PURPOSE

To ensure a smooth onboarding process and provide ongoing support for new employees, fostering their development and integration into Richco International Inc.

SCOPE

This policy applies to all new employees during their first 3 months of employment, and to all employees who are assigned as mentors.

POLICY STATEMENT

Monitoring:
New employees will be monitored regularly to track their progress, identify areas for improvement, and ensure they are meeting expectations. This will be done through a combination of performance reviews, regular check-ins and feedback sessions.

Mentoring:
Each new employee will be assigned a mentor who will provide guidance, support, and mentorship during their initial period. Mentors will be experienced employees who are well-versed in the organization's culture and processes.

Responsibilities:

- New Employees:
  - Actively participate in the onboarding process and seek guidance from their mentors and supervisors.
  - Communicate openly and honestly with their mentors and supervisors.
  - Be proactive in seeking feedback and addressing areas for improvement.
- Mentors:
  - Provide regular guidance and support to their mentees.
  - Be available to answer questions and address concerns.
  - Facilitate a positive and supportive mentoring relationship.
  - Provide feedback on performance and development areas.

- Supervisors:
    - Ensure that new employees are assigned mentors.
    - Monitor the progress of new employees and provide feedback.
    - Facilitate regular check-ins between mentors and mentees.
    - Address any issues or concerns that arise.

MONITORING PROCEDURES:

Onboarding Checklist:
A comprehensive checklist will be used to ensure that all new employees complete the necessary onboarding procedures.

Regular Check-ins:
Mentors and supervisors will conduct regular check-ins with new employees to discuss their progress, address any concerns, and provide feedback.

Performance Reviews:
Formal performance reviews will be conducted at regular intervals to evaluate performance and identify areas for development.

Feedback Sessions:
Mentors and supervisors will provide regular feedback to new employees on their performance and development.

Documentation:
All monitoring activities and feedback sessions will be documented for future reference.

MENTORING PROGRAM:

Matching:
New employees will be matched with mentors based on their roles, experience, and interests.

Training:
Mentors will receive training on how to effectively mentor new employees.

Meeting Schedule:
Mentors and mentees will schedule regular meetings to discuss progress, address concerns, and provide feedback.

Confidentiality:
Mentors will maintain the confidentiality of all information shared by their mentees.

Flexibility:
The mentoring program will be flexible to accommodate the needs of both mentors and mentees.

Policy Review: This policy will be reviewed and updated regularly to ensure its effectiveness.
